HAROLD C. MANOR

PALM BEACH COMMUNITY COLLEGE'S SECOND PRESIDENT, HAROLD C. MANOR, CAME TO THE COLLEGE IN 1957. UNDER HIS GIFTED LEADERSHIP, THE COLLEGE FLOURISHED, AND SATELLITE CENTERS OPENED IN PALM BEACH GARDENS, BELLE GLADE AND BOCA RATON. MANOR RETIRED FROM PALM BEACH COMMUNITY COLLEGE IN 1978, AFTER 21 YEARS OF DEDICATED SERVICE.

IT ALL BEGAN QUITE SIMPLY IN 1933. PALM BEACH COMMUNITY COLLEGE'S BEGINNINGS WERE INDEED HUMBLE, SET IN A MODEST TWO STORY STONE STRUCTURE AT 813 GARDENIA STREET IN DOWNTOWN WEST PALM BEACH -- A SITE WHICH HAS NOW BEEN NAMED TO THE NATIONAL REGISTER OF HISTORIC PLACES. WITH ITS ROOTS STEEPED IN COMMITMENT AND IDEALISM, IT WAS DESTINED TO ACHIEVE GREATNESS. FEW, THEN, REALIZED JUST HOW GREAT AN INSTITUTION PBCC WOULD BECOME.

IN 1993, PBCC CELEBRATED ITS 60TH ANNIVERSARY DIAMOND JUBILEE, AND MANY OF THE MEMORIES FROM THE PAST YEAR HAVE BEEN RECAPTURED IN THE 1994 PALM BEACH COMMUNITY COLLEGE PRESIDENT'S REPORT. FOR SEVEN DECADES, PBCC HAS LOVINGLY EMBRACED ITS MISSION TO EDUCATE, TRAIN AND PREPARE STUDENTS, NOT ONLY FOR CAREERS, BUT FOR LIFE.

THERE WERE MANY EVENTS DESIGNED TO CELEBRATE THE COLLEGE'S ANNIVERSARY YEAR, AND ONE OF THE MOST PROFOUND AND MEMORABLE WAS THE WALK OF FAME WHICH HONORED 16 OUTSTANDING INDIVIDUALS WHO CONTRIBUTED TO PBCC'S CROWNING SUCCESS OVER THE YEARS. WE HAVE CALLED THESE EXTRAORDINARY MEN AND WOMEN OUR "SACRED 16," AND THEIR UNIQUE CONTRIBUTIONS HAVE BEEN HIGHLIGHTED THROUGHOUT THE PAGES OF THIS DOCUMENT AND IN THE SPECIAL PULLOUT CENTER FOLD.

JOIN US NOW AS THE 1994 PALM BEACH COMMUNITY COLLEGE PRESIDENT'S REPORT WALKS YOU THROUGH THE COLLEGE'S GLORIOUS 60TH ANNIVERSARY DIAMOND JUBILEE YEAR.

Remembering Britton G. Sayles

Long-time Palm Beach County educator Britton G. Sayles passed away on March 14, 1994, leaving a legacy of service to the community that spanned nearly half a century. During his distinguished career, he was known for his abilities in the classroom as well as his desire to enrich the lives of all Palm Beach County citizens.

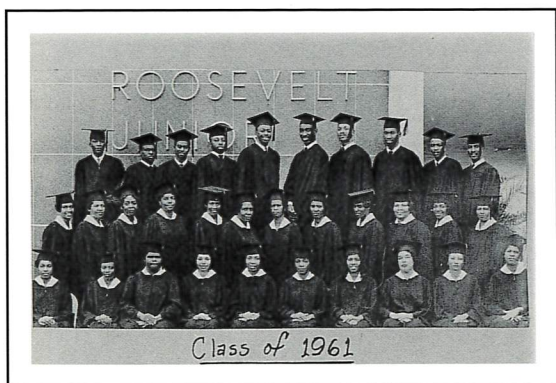

Britton G. Sayles first entered the academic arena as a teacher of English. His talents were quickly recognized and rewarded, and he moved swiftly up the professional ladder. His educational assignments were many and varied, and reflected the esteem in which he was held. After serving as dean of men at Florida Memorial College, he became principal of Belle Glade's Everglades Vocational High School and Roosevelt Junior High School.

Sayles' most notable achievement was recorded in 1958, when he was named president of Roosevelt Junior College, the area's first public junior college for blacks. In 1965, Roosevelt Junior College merged with Palm Beach Community College, and Sayles continued his administrative career with the Palm Beach County School System.

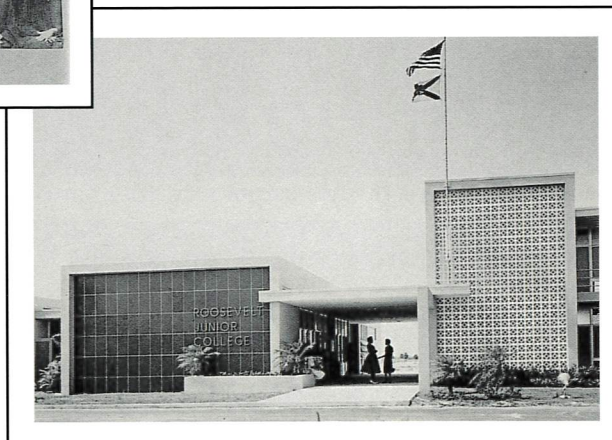

In addition to the many years he devoted to education, Sayles was a passionate community activist. His civic contributions were legendary, and he sat on the boards of several major organizations including the United Way of the Palm Beaches, the American Cancer Society and Goodwill Industries of America.

Throughout his lifetime, Sayles was the recipient of numerous awards and citations and was recognized by Governor Lawton Chiles and the Florida Cabinet for his years of service as president of Roosevelt Junior College. Additionally, in May 1993, the Social Science Building at Palm Beach Community College's Central Campus was named in his honor.

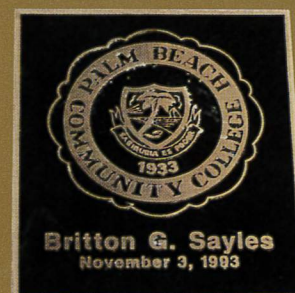

It was the class of 1961 graduating from Roosevelt Junior College (pictured right) ... and in the hearts of all graduates of RJC, Britton G. Sayles will live on.

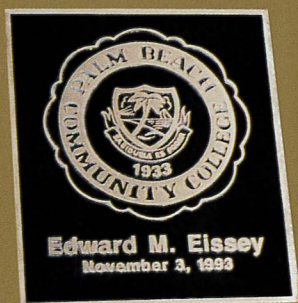

BRITTON G.
SAYLES

A LEADING AND RESPECTED EDUCATOR, BRITTON G. SAYLES SERVED THE LOCAL COMMUNITY FOR NEARLY HALF A CENTURY. SAYLES WAS PRESIDENT OF ROOSEVELT JUNIOR COLLEGE, THE AREA'S ONLY ALL BLACK INSTITUTION, WHEN IT MERGED WITH PALM BEACH COMMUNITY COLLEGE IN 1965. PBCC'S CENTRAL CAMPUS SOCIAL SCIENCE BUILDING WAS RENAMED THE BRITTON G. SAYLES BUILDING IN 1993.

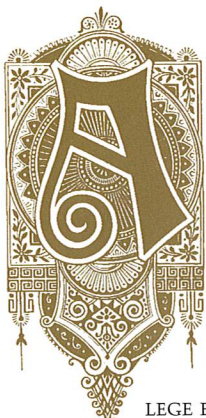

EDWARD M. EISSEY

PALM BEACH COMMUNITY COLLEGE PRESIDENT EDWARD M. EISSEY HAS DEVOTED MORE THAN 40 YEARS TO SERVING THE CITIZENS OF PALM BEACH COUNTY. HIS ASSOCIATION WITH THE COLLEGE DATES BACK TO 1973 WHEN HE WAS NAMED TO PBCC'S DISTRICT BOARD OF TRUSTEES. A MAN OF EXCEPTIONAL VISION AND COMMITMENT, EISSEY HAS BEEN PBCC'S DYNAMIC CEO SINCE 1978.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT Edward M. Eissey, Ph. D.

S PRESIDENT OF PALM BEACH COMMUNITY COLLEGE, THE 1993-94 ACADEMIC YEAR HAS BEEN ONE OF GREAT PRIDE AND EXCITEMENT AS THE ENTIRE COLLEGE FAMILY JOINED TOGETHER IN CELEBRATION OF PBCC'S 60TH ANNIVERSARY DIAMOND JUBILEE.

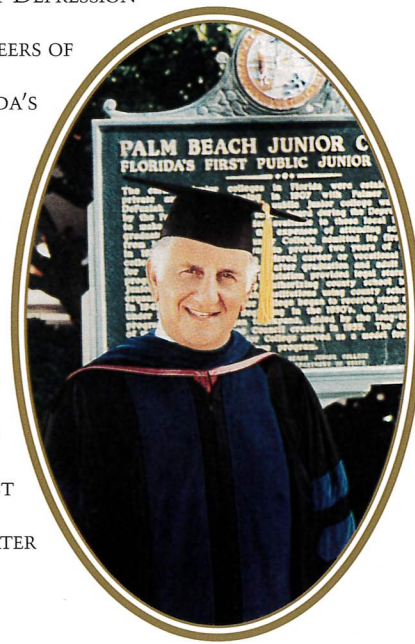

SIXTY YEARS AGO, WHEN PBCC BEGAN, ITS FIRST CLASS INCLUDED A HANDFUL OF EAGER YOUNG MEN AND WOMEN, ALL OF WHOM SHARED THE DREAM OF A COLLEGE EDUCATION. MOTIVATED BY A STRONG LOVE OF LEARNING AND AN UNCOMPROMISING DESIRE TO PREPARE FOR THE CHALLENGES OF THE GREAT DEPRESSION YEARS, THESE REMARKABLE STUDENTS WERE ACADEMIC PIONEERS OF SORTS, AND FORMED THE HUMAN FOUNDATION OF FLORIDA'S FIRST PUBLIC COMMUNITY COLLEGE.

TO RECAPTURE 60 YEARS OF COLLEGE ACCOMPLISHMENTS IN A FEW PARAGRAPHS IS A SEEMINGLY IMPOSSIBLE TASK. OVER THESE YEARS, WE HAVE EDUCATED TENS OF THOUSANDS OF STUDENTS, AND TODAY, OUR STUDENT ENROLLMENT APPROACHES 50,000. AS WE PREPARE FOR THE ACADEMIC AND TECHNOLOGICAL ADVANCES OF THE 21ST CENTURY, WE ENVISION GREATER NUMBERS AND EVEN GREATER CHALLENGES.

ALL OF OUR VAST ACCOMPLISHMENTS THROUGHOUT THESE PAST SEVEN DECADES WOULD NOT HAVE BEEN REALIZED WITHOUT ONE ESSENTIAL COMPONENT—AN EXEMPLARY STAFF OF DEDICATED TEACHERS. INITIALLY, THEY ANSWERED THE CALL IN 1933 WHEN THEY VOLUNTEERED TO TEACH AT THE NEWLY ORGANIZED JUNIOR COLLEGE WITHOUT PAY, AND THEIR STEADFAST COMMITMENT CONTINUES TODAY, MORE INTENSELY THAN EVER.

AT PBCC, WE BELIEVE THAT WE ARE ALL FIRST STUDENTS OF LIFE, AND AS SUCH, WE MUST NEVER FORGET THE PAST FOR IT HELPS US THROUGH TODAY AND PREPARES US FOR TOMORROW.

SIXTY YEARS HAVE PRODUCED COUNTLESS MEMORIES. PLEASE JOIN WITH ME AS WE RE-CREATE MANY OF THESE MOMENTS IN THE 1994 PALM BEACH COMMUNITY COLLEGE PRESIDENT'S REPORT.

JOHN I. LEONARD

It was time for curtains up, light the lights as the Palm Beach Community College Eissey Campus Theatre opened to a packed house on March 18, 1994. The dazzling, post modern state-of-the-art performance and teaching facility seats 750 and contains a 2,500 square foot lobby/exhibition area. It is envisioned that the newly opened theatre, which plans to emphasize family and multicultural programming, will become a center for education and the arts in northern Palm Beach County.

JOHN I. LEONARD, WHO WAS RECOGNIZED POSTHUMOUSLY, WAS PALM BEACH COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS AS WELL AS PALM BEACH COMMUNITY COLLEGE'S FIRST PRESIDENT. LEONARD SKILLFULLY MANAGED BOTH ADMINISTRATIVE DUTIES UNTIL 1948 WHEN HE DEVOTED FULL TIME TO HIS RESPONSIBILITIES AS COLLEGE PRESIDENT.

Glades Reunion

It was billed as one fabulous event—the 22nd annual reunion of PBCC's Glades Campus—and for all those who attended, it did not disappoint. The quiet campus nestled in western Palm Beach County became, at least for one short evening, ritzy, glitzy Nightclub 22.

Coordinated by provost Helen B. Franke, the event successfully brought together nearly 200 Glades Campus supporters and alumni, including administrators, faculty and staff. The program was designed to highlight the College's 60 year history as well as the 22 year history of the Belle Glade Campus which initially opened in 1972, at the site of the remodeled National Guard Armory. In 1976, ground-breaking ceremonies were held for the first buildings at PBCC Glades, and two years later, the campus' permanent home was finally opened.

A host of speakers—both past and present members of the PBCC Glades family—shared their memories of the close-knit campus. When it was time for entertainment, there was no need to send out for Whitney (Houston), Aretha (Franklin) or Ol' Blue Eyes (Frank Sinatra). Nightclub 22 had its own reservoir of down-home celebrities including PBCC Trustee and “jazz singer” Minnie Howard, who was backed up by the College trio of Sy Dryweller and Roger and Sal Rossi.

Guess who just turned 20?

The 1993-94 academic year at Palm Beach Community College ignited more than a few sparks of celebration as the College heralded its 60th Anniversary.

PBCC's South Campus has undergone a series of dramatic changes since it first opened on the campus of Florida Atlantic University in 1972. After operating for several years in modular structures, the Boca Raton location was officially designated a campus by the State Board of Community Colleges in 1989. A few months later, PBCC finally had its first permanent classroom building, and a second building, housing student services and administrative offices, followed.

Continuing with that tradition, PBCC's South Campus scheduled an open house which marked not only the Diamond Jubilee Anniversary of the College, but also its twentieth year in Boca Raton. Following the open house reception, the celebration spilled over to the South Campus' new gymnasium where visitors were treated to an inaugural basketball game.

THERE WERE NO RUNWAYS, NO MEDIA AND NO FLASHBULBS GOING OFF, BUT THERE WAS JUST AS MUCH EXCITEMENT AS PALM BEACH COMMUNITY COLLEGE STUDENTS CARLOS MARTINEZ AND SYRINITHNIA ILES WERE NAMED MR. AND MS. PBCC. THE TWO WERE SELECTED AS THE RESULT OF AN ESSAY COMPETITION HELD IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE COLLEGE'S 60TH ANNIVERSARY DIAMOND JUBILEE. SPONSORED BY THE PBCC FOUNDATION, THE COMPETITION WAS OPEN TO ALL COLLEGE STUDENTS.

THE NEWLY CROWNED MS. PBCC IS AN EDUCATION MAJOR AT PBCC'S CENTRAL CAMPUS. ILES IS A MEMBER OF THE DELTA OMICRON CHAPTER OF PHI THETA KAPPA HONORS FRATERNITY AND HAS BEEN NAMED TO THE DEAN'S LIST FOR SEVERAL SEMESTERS.

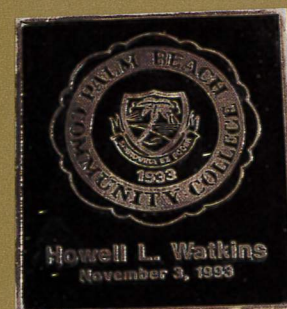

MARTINEZ IS A DECORATED FORMER MARINE WHO SERVED DURING THE PERSIAN GULF WAR. HE IS MAJORING IN CRIMINAL JUSTICE AND PLANS A CAREER IN LAW ENFORCEMENT.

THEY EACH RECEIVED A $500 SCHOLARSHIP PRESENTED BY PBCC PRESIDENT EDWARD M. EISSEY.

HOWELL L. WATKINS

HOWELL L. WATKINS, ALSO RECOGNIZED POSTHUMOUSLY, WAS ONE OF THE DRIVING FORCES IN THE ESTABLISHMENT OF PALM BEACH COMMUNITY COLLEGE. WATKINS, WHO WAS SUPERVISING PRINCIPAL OF CENTRAL SCHOOLS IN PALM BEACH COUNTY, SHARED THE COMMITMENT TO BRING POSTSECONDARY EDUCATION TO LOCAL CITIZENS.

JAMES L. WATTENBARGER, WHO GRADUATED FROM PALM BEACH COMMUNITY COLLEGE IN 1941, IS KNOWN AS THE FATHER OF FLORIDA'S COMMUNITY COLLEGE SYSTEM. HIS DISTINGUISHED ACADEMIC CAREER HAS SPANNED MORE THAN 40 YEARS, AND WAS HIGHLIGHTED IN 1955 WHEN HE BECAME DIRECTOR OF FLORIDA'S COMMUNITY COLLEGE SYSTEM.

Black Ties, Baubles and Beads

THERE WERE MANY IMPORTANT DECISIONS TO BE MADE IN PREPARATION FOR THE COLLEGE'S BLACK TIE GALA. FOR THE MEN, THE DECISION WAS NOT A DIFFICULT ONE—A REACH INTO THE BACK OF THE CLOSET OR A LAST-MINUTE RUSH TO THE FORMAL WEAR SHOP FOR THE REQUIRED BLACK TIE UNIFORM OF THE NIGHT. FOR THE LADIES, THE DECISION-MAKING PROCESS WAS SLIGHTLY MORE COMPLEX, AND MAY HAVE INVOLVED WEEKS OF AGONIZING PLANNING AND PERHAPS A TRIP OR TWO TO PALM BEACH'S SHOPPING MECCA, WORTH AVENUE, IN SEARCH OF THE PERFECT GOWN.

PBCC'S 60TH ANNIVERSARY BLACK TIE GALA DREW MORE THAN 300 ATTENDEES TO THE ISLAND OF PALM BEACH, WHERE THE MUCH-TOUTED EVENT TOOK PLACE IN THE VENETIAN BALLROOM OF THE MAGNIFICENT BREAKERS HOTEL. THE GALA HELPED TO RAISE APPROXIMATELY $35,000 FOR PBCC STUDENT SCHOLARSHIPS.

HONORARY CHAIR LYNN EISSEY CIKLIN WAS JOINED BY CO-CHAIRS GAY JOHANSEN AND MARTHA AHR PLUS A COMMITTEE OF 32 VOLUNTEERS. UNDERWRITING WAS PROVIDED BY ADMIRALTY BANK; ASSOCIATION OF INDEPENDENT BLOOD CENTERS, INC.; BESSEMER TRUST COMPANY; BOOSE, CASEY, CIKLIN, LUBITZ, MARTENS, MCBANE AND O'CONNELL; FIDELITY FEDERAL; FIRST UNION NATIONAL BANK OF FLORIDA; GOLDEN BEAR INTERNATIONAL; W.R. GRACE AND COMPANY; KRAFT, INC.; MR. AND MRS. LEWIS KELLER; MCGLADREY & PULLEN; MONTGOMERY AND LARMOYEUX; NATIONS BANK; AND PALM BEACH NEWSPAPERS.

The happy couple could have danced all night – President and Mrs. Edward M. Eisey.

Coordinated by Margaret Donnelley, the Gala's decorations included spectacular balloons and a room complete with lights and snowflakes.

CORPORATE TABLES INCLUDED THE BENJAMIN SCHOOL; BRADLEY & BOHANNON FINANCIAL SERVICES; COLEE AND SARTORY; PBCC PRESIDENT AND MRS. EDWARD M. EISSEY; FLORIDA POWER & LIGHT; GOOD SAMARITAN MEDICAL CENTER; IBM; JONATHAN'S LANDING; LYTAL & REITER; MAX DAVIS ASSOCIATES; EDWARD A. MAROD, P.A.; PALM BEACH BLOOD BANK, INC.; REPUBLIC SECURITY BANK; RINKER MATERIALS CORPORATION; RON AND KIM SELLERS; SEARCY, DENNEY, SCAROLA, BARNHART AND SHIPLEY, P.A.; SERVICEMASTER; SOUTHERN BELL; AND THERMA-SEAL ROOFS, INC.

Family portrait: Faye, Ed and Lynn (Mrs. Alan Ciklin) Eissey.

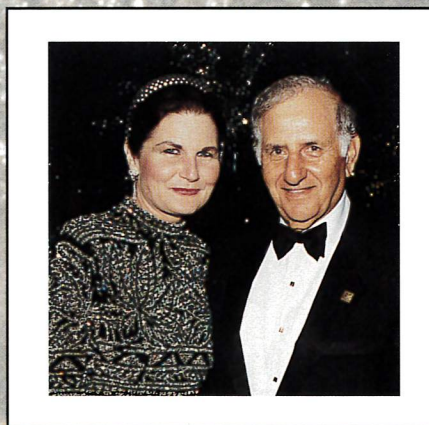

PBCC Foundaton Executive Director Douglas Johansen, Gala co-chair Gay Johansen, Rear Admiral Thomas E. Morris, USN (Retired), Gala co-chair Martha Ahr and Dr. David Ahr.

Dr. and Mrs. Philip O. Lichtblau.

PBCC Trustees Vice Chair John C. Sansbury and Lorraine Ryder were dazzling at the Black Tie Gala.

The Gala's decorations chair Margaret Donnelley and PBCC President Ed Eissey.

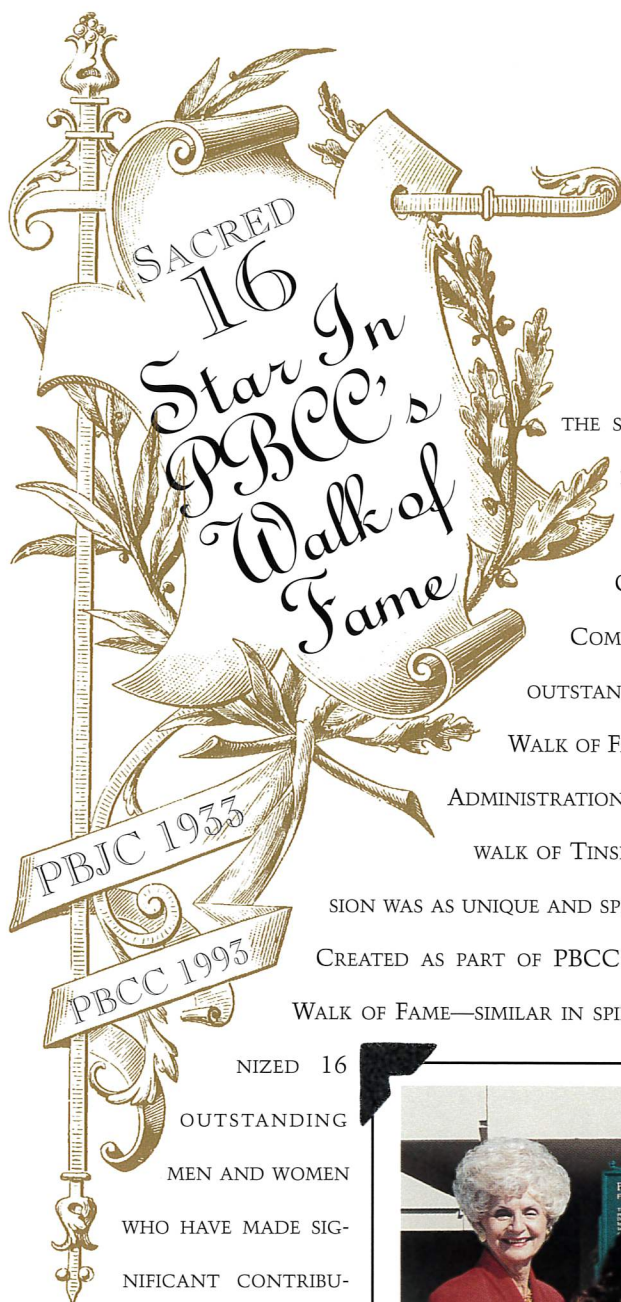

LEE G. HENDERSON

A DISTINGUISHED ALUMNUS, LEE G. HENDERSON GRADUATED FROM PBCC IN 1942 AND DEVOTED HIS ENTIRE PROFESSIONAL LIFE TO ADVANCING THE CAUSE OF HIGHER EDUCATION. HE BECAME THE DIRECTOR OF THE STATE'S COMMUNITY COLLEGE SYSTEM AND BRIEFLY SERVED AS INTERIM PRESIDENT OF FLORIDA COMMUNITY COLLEGE AT JACKSONVILLE.

ELISABETH W. ERLING

THE GRANDE DAME OF PALM BEACH COMMUNITY COLLEGE, VICE PRESIDENT OF PLANNING AND INFORMATION SYSTEMS ELISABETH W. ERLING, WAS CELEBRATED FOR AN ACADEMIC CAREER THAT SPANS MORE THAN 40 YEARS. ERLING, WHO JOINED THE COLLEGE IN 1956, HAS THE DISTINCTION OF BEING THE LONGEST-SERVING PBCC EMPLOYEE.

NIZED 16 OUTSTANDING MEN AND WOMEN WHO HAVE MADE SIGNIFICANT CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE COLLEGE SINCE ITS BEGINNING IN 1933. IT SERVES AS AN ETERNAL MONUMENT TO THE VISION AND COMMITMENT OF THESE EXTRAORDINARY INDIVIDUALS.

HAD SCREENWRITERS SCRIPTED THE SCENE, THE STRAINS OF HOORAY FOR HOLLYWOOD WOULD HAVE BEEN PLAYING IN THE BACKGROUND, AND THE SETTING WOULD HAVE BEEN GRAUMAN'S CHINESE RESTAURANT, AND NOT PALM BEACH COMMUNITY COLLEGE'S CENTRAL CAMPUS AS 16 OUTSTANDING INDIVIDUALS WERE NAMED TO PBCC'S WALK OF FAME. BUT THIS WAS, IN FACT, THE FRONT OF THE ADMINISTRATION BUILDING IN LAKE WORTH AND NOT THE SIDEWALK OF TINSELTOWN, YET WHAT TRANSPIRED ON THIS OCCASION WAS AS UNIQUE AND SPECIAL AS ANY SILVER SCREEN PREMIERE.

Vice president of administration and business affairs G. Tony Tate showed his "hands on" management style.

Former trustee Philip O. Lichtblau (top) and vice president emeritus of academic affairs Paul W. Graham (right) enjoyed their day in the sun.

The pictures in the special pullout section were reproduced against the background of PANTHER TRACKS THE BOARD GAME COMMEMORATIVE EDITION, one of the College's 60th Anniversary promotional items. Taking its lead from the famous board game, Monopoly, PANTHER TRACKS tested the player's knowledge of PBCC history rather than one's ability to accumulate property. PANTHER TRACKS THE BOARD GAME asked the age-old question: "Would you rather be rich in knowledge or real estate?" The fact that very few board games were given away should help with the answer.

G. TONY TATE

PALM BEACH COMMUNITY COLLEGE'S VICE PRESIDENT OF ADMINISTRATION AND BUSINESS AFFAIRS G. TONY TATE JOINED PALM BEACH COMMUNITY COLLEGE IN 1958 AS AN INSTRUCTOR. OVER THE YEARS, HE HAS HELD SEVERAL ADMINISTRATIVE POSTS, AND WAS NAMED VICE PRESIDENT OF BUSINESS AFFAIRS IN 1978. TATE IS PRESENTLY THE COLLEGE'S SECOND RANKING SENIOR MEMBER IN YEARS OF SERVICE.

PBCC Remembers Lake Park Days

As Palm Beach Community College's 60th Anniversary drew to a close, PBCC held a special commemorative program to celebrate its days at the Lake Park Town Hall. In a brief but significant ceremony, PBCC representatives joined with alumni and Lake Park officials in retracing the College's roots back to the early 1950s.

Palm Beach Junior College, which relocated to the remodeled Lake Park Town Hall in 1951, remained there for five years before moving to its permanent home in Lake Worth. Though PBJC's short stay represented more of an interlude than a long-term commitment, it remained an invaluable part of the College's academic heritage. Among the faculty then was the legendary master teacher, Watson B. Duncan III, and two of his students went on to award-winning acting careers—Burt Reynolds and Monte Markham.

Palm Beach Community College District Board of Trustees

FRANCES R. "DOLLY" HAND

FRANCES R. "DOLLY" HAND WAS APPOINTED PALM BEACH COMMUNITY COLLEGE TRUSTEE IN 1974 AND REMAINED AN EXEMPLARY MEMBER OF THE BOARD FOR OVER 15 YEARS. THE GLADES CAMPUS CULTURAL ARTS CENTER WAS NAMED IN HER HONOR WHEN IT OPENED IN 1982. HAND IS A STAUNCH SUPPORTER OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND PALM BEACH COMMUNITY COLLEGE.

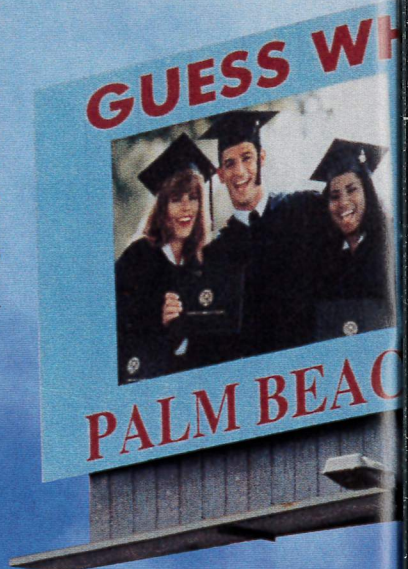

PAUL J. GLYNN

PALM BEACH COMMUNITY COLLEGE VICE PRESIDENT EMERITUS OF STUDENT AFFAIRS PAUL J. GLYNN WAS NAMED DEAN OF MEN WHEN HE JOINED THE COLLEGE IN 1949. HE ALSO TAUGHT SEVERAL CLASSES AND SERVED AS ATHLETIC DIRECTOR. GLYNN RETIRED FROM PALM BEACH COMMUNITY COLLEGE IN 1978, AND IN 1984, THE CENTRAL CAMPUS REGISTRAR'S CENTER WAS NAMED IN HIS HONOR.

Guess Who's Turning 60???

PBCC's 60TH ANNIVERSARY BILLBOARD, WHICH FEATURED PBCC PRESIDENT EDWARD M. EISSEY, PBCC VICE PRESIDENT OF PLANNING AND INFORMATION SYSTEMS ELISABETH W. ERLING AND PBCC VICE PRESIDENT OF ADMINISTRATION AND BUSINESS AFFAIRS G. TONY TATE, WAS SEEN BY TENS OF THOUSANDS OF DAILY COMMUTERS WHO TRAVELED INTERSTATE 95.

One of the highlights of PBCC's Eissey Campus "WRITES" of Spring festivities was the dedication of a 60th Anniversary Commemorative Garden. Faculty and students in the College's ornamental horticulture program were instrumental in the garden's creation. Pictured at the dedication ceremony are L-R: PBCC Eissey Campus Senior Instructor of Ornamental Horticulture Walter Weerts, PBCC Eissey Campus Provost Ottis Smith and PBCC Vice President of Planning and Information Systems Elisabeth W. Erling.

WHAT'S COOKING AT PBCC?

Just ask the winners of the College's 60th Anniversary cookbook competition. Pictured L-R is the creative quartet who earned culinary kudos for their recipes: Salle Thornton, second place; Donna DiSesa, honorable mention; Ethel Fowler, third place; and Alicia Bell, first place.

PAUL W.
GRAHAM

WHEN PAUL W. GRAHAM RETIRED IN 1984, HE HAD AMASSED A QUARTER CENTURY OF SERVICE TO THE COLLEGE. NAMED PALM BEACH COMMUNITY COLLEGE'S VICE PRESIDENT OF ACADEMIC AFFAIRS IN 1975, GRAHAM'S LEADERSHIP CONTRIBUTED GREATLY TO THE COLLEGE'S GROWTH. FOLLOWING HIS RETIREMENT, THE CENTRAL CAMPUS CONTINUING STUDIES BUILDING WAS NAMED IN HIS HONOR.

WATSON B. DUNCAN III

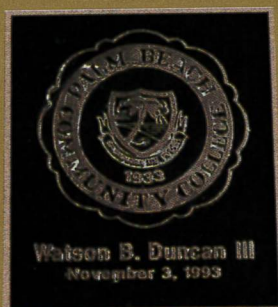

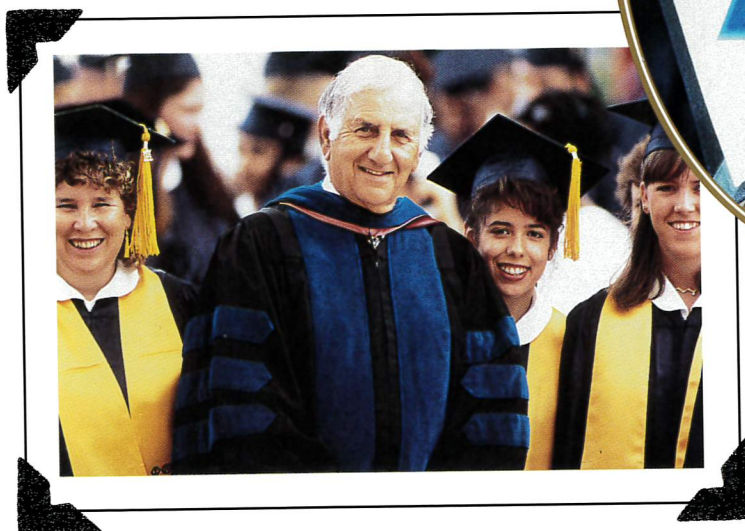

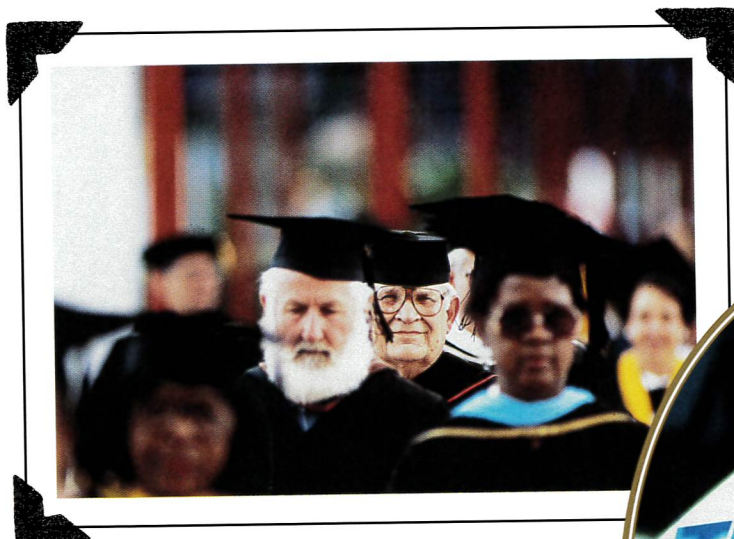

PALM BEACH COMMUNITY COLLEGE'S DISTINGUISHED CHAIR OF ARTS AND LETTERS AND MASTER TEACHER WATSON B. DUNCAN III WAS RECOGNIZED POSTHUMOUSLY. DUNCAN, A LEADING SHAKESPEAREAN SCHOLAR, SERVED WITH DISTINCTION FOR 43 YEARS, AND THE CENTRAL CAMPUS THEATER PROUDLY BEARS HIS NAME.

CELEBRATING

SENSATIONAL YEARS

Palm Beach Community College. Today, it is much more than just one singular sensation. Established in 1933, PBCC has grown from a single site and now includes four outstanding campuses spread throughout Palm Beach County. Now celebrating its Diamond Jubilee Anniversary, PBCC has educated, enriched and challenged local residents for 60 years.

Palm Beach Community College. The Sensation Continues...
